Claim of Business Confidentiality

Any person who provides to the Division an application (or information contained in any record) that he or she believes should be protected under UCA Subsection 63-2-304 (1) or (2) shall provide with the application a written claim of business confidentiality and a concise statement of reasons supporting the claim of business confidentiality. If you claim that the information herein submitted is confidential please check the applicable box and print or type a concise statement of the reasons supporting the claim of business confidentiality in the space provided below:

- Trade secrets- if the submitted information, includes a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or process, that has actual or potential value by its non-disclosure to the general public, and is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy;
- Commercial information or nonindividual financial information- if the submitted information contains commercial information or nonindividual financial information which may result in unfair competitive injury to the person submitting the information, or would impair the ability of the Division to obtain necessary information in the future, and the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access than the public in obtaining access.

Statement of reasons supporting the claim of business confidentiality:

(Note: Failure to provide a concise statement of reasons supporting the claim of business confidentiality shall result in a rejection of the claim by the Division.)

I, _____, do hereby claim that the information herein submitted as required by the Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands, is confidential.
